

How often do you go to art galleries?
Do you enjoy visiting them?

Do you like to draw or paint? Would you like to start doing it?

What paintings do you have hanging in your house right now?

Who is the greatest painter in your country's history?

Who is the greatest living painter?

Do you like the work of Picasso?

What would you say is the purpose of art?

Do you think that a computer program
is capable of creating art?

How important is it that children study art at school?

Do you think that graffiti counts as art?
Why or why not?

Do you think art galleries should be free? Why or why not?

Did you use to enjoy drawing and painting as a child?

Would you like to be an artist? Why or why not?

Who is the greatest painter in world history?

What do you think about modern art in general? Is it an improvement on the past?

Do you think painting and sculpture are still relevant in the 21st century?

What is the difference between a good work of art and a great work of art?

Do cave paintings really count as art?

How much would you be willing to pay for a great work of art?

Do you think that film has replaced painting as the primary visual art form?