

Crisis Management

What kind of crisis situations can a company face?	Do you think you have the qualities needed to deal with a crisis?
What steps can a business take when in financial trouble?	Why do big companies sometimes fail?
Do you ever worry that your company will fail one day?	Do you predict your country will experience an economic crisis in the near future?
What sort of person is good in a crisis?	Has your company ever experienced a crisis?
What can a business do when its sales are very low?	Have there been any big businesses in your country which have failed recently?
If the senior managers in your company suddenly resigned, would there be a crisis?	Should the government rescue banks which fail? Why or why not?