

Friendship (Student A)

1. How many close friends should a normal person have?
 2. What is the best way to meet new friends?
 3. Should we try and keep in touch with old school friends? Do you do this?
 4. Should a husband and wife be best friends?
 5. If a close friend commits a minor crime, should you tell the police?
 6. Is it possible to be friends with someone from a totally different culture?
 7. Is it possible to make new friends when you are very old?
-

Friendship (Student B)

1. What qualities do you look for in a friend?
 2. How does friendship benefit people?
 3. Has social media allowed us to make more friends?
 4. Can a married man and a married woman become close friends?
 5. Is it possible to be friends with someone who committed a serious crime?
 6. Can a person be happy and well-adjusted without any friends?
 7. Can a boss be friends with his or her employees?
-

Friendship (Student C)

1. How do you know if someone is a close friend?
 2. Did you have a best friend at school? Why did you like them?
 3. Are long-distance friendships through social media really possible?
 4. Is it possible to have close friends who are much older or younger?
 5. Can people with very different interests be friends?
 6. Are there any differences between male and female friendships?
 7. If you were the boss, would you give jobs to your friends?
-