

What is the most beautiful language in the world?

What is the most useful language in the world to know?

Is it a problem that many of the world's languages are dying?

Is it rude to speak your own language around people who can't understand?

How important is language to national identity?

How many languages can a single person learn in a lifetime?

Is it possible to think without language?

Can machines use language?

Can animals use language? How could we test this?

Is it possible to forget your first language?

Do you think there are any ugly languages? Which ones?

Which do you think is the most difficult language to learn?

Should everybody in the world speak the same language?

Should the government control how we use language?

If you could change your first language, would you?

What three languages would you really like to speak?

Does the language you speak affect your personality?

Is it possible to create an artificial language? Would it be worth it?

What happens if you don't learn a first language as a child? Can you learn later on?

Is it possible to fall in love with someone who doesn't speak your language?