

Leadership

|   |   |
|---|---|
| Which leadership style, autocratic, democratic or laissez-faire, is the most effective? | What is the single most important quality a good leader needs?            |
| Who, in your opinion, is the greatest leader in your country's history?                 | In what circumstances should a leader resign?                             |
| Do physically strong people make better leaders?  | Is it a good idea for a boss to become friendly with their employees?     |
| Is there such thing as a natural leader?Can a person learn to become a leader?      | Would you say that you are a good leader?                                 |
| Do you think your country has good leadership at the moment?                            | In general, do you think men and women adopt different leadership styles? |
| Do people become better leaders as they get older?                                      | If you were the boss of your company, what would you do first?            |