

The Media

How do you find out about what's going on in the world?

Do you ever use social media sites like Twitter and Reddit? Are they a good idea?

How often do you watch the news on television? Which is the best channel for news?

Do you ever read or watch news from other countries? Why do you do this?

What, in your opinion, is the most trustworthy source of news?

Should newspapers be allowed to write anything they want?

Should the media focus more on domestic problems or on global problems?

Would you say that the media has helped to create a better society?

Do you think that 'fake news' has become a problem? What can we do about it?

Is it right when the newspapers report on a politician's private life?

The Media

Is it important to know what is happening in the world? Why?

When was the last time you bought a newspaper? Do they have a future?

Do you have a favourite newsreader or journalist? Why do you like them?

Do you think the media reports news better than it did 25 years ago or worse?

What, in your view, makes a good journalist?

Do you think the media has the power to influence people? How so?

Do you think that journalists should try and be more positive about the world?

On the whole, do you trust what journalists in your country say?

Why is the media so interested in celebrities? Do you find celebrities interesting?

Who would you say controls the media in your country?