

Money

Do you know if your company made a profit last year? How much did it make?

Some companies avoid paying tax by bending the rules of the tax system. Is this immoral or just good business practice?

If you had a million euros or dollars to invest, what sort of business would you invest in?

Do you have any good business ideas which could make a lot of money?

How healthy is your country's economy right now?

Do you think that profit is the purpose of business?

What do you think are the future prospects of your company? Will it grow and make more money?

Have you ever invested money in the stock market? Do you think it is a good idea?

Would you like to be in charge of a large budget? Could you handle the responsibility?

In 2008 there was a global economic crisis. What do you think caused it?

Do you think there will be another recession in the near future?

Is it possible to create a world without money? How would it work?