

Religion

What is the main religion of your country? How has this changed over history?

In many Western nations, church attendance is in decline. Why is this?

Is it possible for people of different religions to live together peacefully?

Do you know anybody who is deeply religious? Has their religion helped them?

Should religion be taught in schools?
In what way should it be taught?

Should the Bible and the Koran be treated as historical documents or sacred texts?

Is atheism a kind of religion?

Would you vote for a politician who believed in a religion different from your own?

Is religious teaching needed in a consumer society?

If a religion has survived for centuries, does this mean there is something good in it?

Why do so many cultures have religions?

Is there one true religion in your opinion?

Are people naturally good or do they need a moral education?

Can we learn lessons from the stories of Jesus or other religious figures?

Is religion really compatible with a scientific world view?

Is it possible to prove the existence of God?

Have you read the stories of the Greek Gods? Can we learn anything from them?

Should the church influence the state or should they be separate?

Religion has been with us for millennia. Will it survive a thousand years more?

On balance, do you think that religions have made the world a better place?