

Risk

What is your general attitude to risk?	How many risks have you taken today?
All in all, would you consider yourself to be a lucky person?	What kind of risks do companies need to take to be successful?
In the long term, are risk-takers more successful?	Do you think that risk-taking caused the global recession of the early 21st century?
Have you ever taken a big risk in your life? What was it?	Do you think you need to take bigger risks in the future?
What sort of risks does a person need to take to be successful in the modern workplace?	Can you think of an example of a big risk taken by a large company?
Do you think investing in stocks and shares is a good idea?	Should a manager take risks with a company's money?
