

Science (Student A)

1. Did you enjoy science lessons at school?
  2. Would you like to work as a scientific researcher?
  3. What major scientific breakthroughs have there been in the last 50 years?
  4. What is there left to discover?
  5. What do you understand by the scientific method?
  6. Can science and religion live alongside each other?
  7. Would you be happy to donate your body to medical science?
-

Science (Student B)

1. Which of the sciences interests you most?
  2. Is science relevant to our everyday lives?
  3. Who is the greatest scientist in your country's history?
  4. What would you say is the purpose of science?
  5. Is science capable of providing us with absolute truth?
  6. According to science, a human being is just a material object. Do you agree?
  7. Do you enjoy science-fiction novels and movies?
-

Science (Student C)

1. Which science do you think is the most important?
  2. What are the greatest scientific achievements in history?
  3. Who is the greatest living scientist in the world?
  4. Who were the first human beings to do science?
  5. Are there any questions which science cannot answer?
  6. Can science be dangerous?
  7. Should your government spend more or less money on scientific research?
-