

University

How much should university students pay for their tuition?

Should there be university degrees in practical subjects like bricklaying or plumbing?

Should universities focus more on teaching or on research?

What is the most famous university in the world? Is it the best?

In your view, is everyone capable of going to university?

Is studying the classical civilisations of Greece and Rome a waste of time?

Would you like your children to go to university?

Is there anything you would change about how university education works?

What do you think about the idea of an online university?

How important is it for students to socialise and go to parties at university?

Should international students pay the same fees as local students or more?

Is the purpose of a university education to prepare us for life or for work?

What is the best university in your country?

What do you think about the overall quality of universities in your country?

Around 40% of people in the EU and the US go to university. Should it be more?

Are there any degree courses which you think are useless?

Is three years enough for a university education?

Why do most students study just one subject at university? Should it be more?

Does the existence of universities help improve society?

Should students work for a year before starting university?