

Video Games (Student A)

1. Did you play video games as a child? What games did you play?
 2. What genre of video games interests you the most?
 3. Can a video game be educational in any way?
 4. Can playing video games help to relieve stress?
 5. Why do so many video games involve killing?
 6. For how many hours a day is it healthy to play video games?
 7. Are video games just for children or can adults play them?
 8. Will virtual reality games become popular in the future?
 9. Have you ever played a game on a mobile phone? Was it fun?
 10. Can playing a video game in foreign language help you learn it better?
-

Video Games (Student B)

1. What is the best video game you have ever played?
 2. Do you prefer playing against computer opponents or other human players?
 3. Is it possible to learn practical skills from playing video games?
 4. Is video game addiction a big problem in modern society?
 5. Can violent video games make people violent in the real world?
 6. Are online multiplayer games a good way to meet people?
 7. At what age should a child be allowed to play video games?
 8. Have you ever heard of e-sports? Do they interest you in any way?
 9. Is it possible to tell a good story through a video game?
 10. Can video games be considered art?
-