

Video Games (Student A)

1. Did you play video games as a child? What games did you play?
 2. Do you prefer playing against computer opponents or other human players?
 3. Can playing video games help to relieve stress?
 4. Can violent video games make people violent in the real world?
 5. Are video games just for children or can adults play them?
 6. Have you ever heard of e-sports? Do they interest you in any way?
 7. Can playing a video game in foreign language help you learn it better?
-

Video Games (Student B)

1. What is the best video game you have ever played?
 2. Can a video game be educational in any way?
 3. Is video game addiction a big problem in modern society?
 4. For how many hours a day is it healthy to play video games?
 5. At what age should a child be allowed to play video games?
 6. Have you ever played a game on a mobile phone? Was it fun?
 7. Can video games be considered art?
-

Video Games (Student C)

1. What genre of video games interests you the most?
 2. Is it possible to learn practical skills from playing video games?
 3. Why do so many video games involve killing?
 4. Are online multiplayer games a good way to meet people?
 5. Will virtual reality games become popular in the future?
 6. Is it possible to tell a good story through a video game?
 7. What will video games look like in 50 years' time?
-